Dear Sir(s),

We take great pleasure in sending you herewith the PATENT CERTIFICATE of the above patent application together with its English translation for your record. A copy of the issuance publication in Chinese of said patent is also enclosed inside the Patent Certificate.

The above mentioned patent was announced on March 12, 2008, in the Chinese Patent Gazette, Issue No. CN 100374717C.

The next annuity (for the year 6 ) for this case will come due on September 8, 2008.

Please note that, under our law, to maintain the patent, the patentee shall pay annuity every year. If the annuity is not paid on time or in full, the patentee shall pay the annuity within 6 months from the expiration of the time limit together with a surcharge. The amount of the surcharge will be 5% of the corresponding annual fee per month. If the payment of the fees is not made within the six-month period, the patent right will be deemed to have been lapsed from the expiration of the time limit. If we are authorized to pay the annuities for the above patent, we will monitor and remind the due dates of the annuities one month earlier.

Very truly yours,

Xu Yiping

Director General
